If any election rules are broken by the write-in candidate prior to registration, the Election Commission has the right to reject that person as a candidate or disqualify them.

ARTICLE X: CANDIDATE WITHDRAWAL

10.01 Any candidate who wishes to withdraw from the election before the close of polls shall sign an official statement of such withdrawal in person in the presence of an Election Commissioner and must present proper identification.

ARTICLE XI: SANCTIONS

11.01 There are five types of violations that can occur during campaigning. The types of violations are as follows: Petty Offenses, Minor Infractions, Major Infractions, Multiple Offenses and Disqualification.

11.02 Petty Offenses are offenses that the Election Commission determines to have no material impact on the election, regardless of intent of the candidate. During a candidates' campaign a Petty Offense may only occur one time. Subsequent Petty Offenses will result in an escalation of the offense to a Minor Infraction.

a) Unauthorized Posting of 20 or less of the same sized campaign material that is 8.5x11 inches or sending an unauthorized E-mail to 20 or less students are examples of Petty Offenses. If a candidate illegally posts two or more different sized posters, regardless of the number of posters posted, the offense is immediately handled as a Minor Infraction.

11.03 Minor Infractions are infractions that the Election Commission determines to have a minor impact on the election, and demonstrate a clear violation of the Election Commission standards, regardless of the intent of the candidate.

a) Multiple Petty Offenses, distribution of campaign material (regardless of size) in an academic classroom while a Fordham University class is taking place, unauthorized posting of a banner (any written material larger than 8.5x11 inches) and any other similar violations are considered Minor Infractions.

b) A campaign may be fined up to 15% of their maximum total budget, and/or suspended from campaigning for up to six hours, during any period of the campaign cycle. The Election Commission reserves the right to decide the hours a campaign is barred from campaigning.

11.04 A Major Infraction has significant material impact on the Election and causes severe harm to the integrity of the election.

11.05 The Election Commission reserves the right to determine if any similar infractions would constitute a major infraction. However the following are examples of major infractions:

- a) Campaigning before the time designated by the Election Commission and the Election Rules,
 - b) Posting material that has not been approved by the USG Election Commission and the OSLCD Office Manager or his/her designee,
 - c) Over-expenditure on a campaign account,
 - d) Using a club office as a campaign headquarters,
 - e) Campaigning in the University Library during any day of the Election Cycle,
 - f) Campaigning in any University Computer Lab during voting days,
 - g) Campaigning in designated non-campaigning area,
 - h) Use of slander against another candidate, even if you are not running against that candidate in an Election Cycle,
 - i) Proof of a misrepresentation of facts to the Election Commission,
 - j) Setting up your own polling place. It IS illegal to have someone vote on your computer, under all circumstances.
- 11.06 There are two types of sanctions that the Election Commission may issue for a Major Infraction. There are Budget sanctions and all other sanctions. The Election Commission may fine a campaign up to 25% of the total allotment for ANY Major Infraction. If the punishment by the Election Commission causes a campaign to go over the allotted amount for that position then the Budget sanction will be applied. Any campaign that spends more than their budget allotment will result in any combination of removal of campaign material, loss of time allowed to campaign or disqualification. If a campaign spends more than 50% more than their budget allotment, they will be immediately disqualified ($300.01 for a $200 allotment).
- 11.07 For all other Major Infractions a campaign still may be penalized with a fine of up to 25% of the budget allotment. The Election Commission may also suspend a candidate from campaigning for a period of time no less than 12 hours and no more than 24 hours. The Election Commission reserves the right to designate those hours at their discretion and they can be broken up. (i.e. 12 hours on voting day 1 and 12 hours on voting day 2).
- 11.08 Multiple Infractions are two or more dissimilar offenses during one campaign cycle.
- 11.09 If there are two different minor infractions in an election cycle, the Election Commission is able to use the punishments for Major Infractions in lieu of the punishment for the Minor Infraction. If a candidate has already been punished for a Minor Infraction and proceeds to commit a second Minor Infraction he/she may be punished using the Major Infraction Standards for non-budget infractions.
- 11.10 In the event that a candidate commits two Major Infractions, the candidate will be forced to cease campaigning immediately, pending hearing to be held by the Election Commission, immediately the following business day. The maximum amount of time a candidate may be suspended from campaigning, without being disqualified is 48 hours The Election Commission will decide the amount of suspension time at the conclusion of the hearing. The Election Commission may count the time on immediate temporary suspension towards the penalty; however, they are not obligated to do so.

- 11.11 A candidate will be disqualified immediately for the use of racial, sexual, or religious discrimination towards another candidate.

ARTICLE XII: APPEALS

- 12.01. Appeals must be brought to the attention of the Election Commission within twenty-four hours after the election. If a candidate would like to file a complaint against another candidate, it must occur within 24 hours from the time the alleged violation occurred

- 12.05 The Election Commission will then enter a closed session to make a decision concerning the case.
- 12.06 This decision must be shared with all involved parties at most one hour and a half after the start of the hearing.
- 12.07 If a candidate wants to appeal an offense, believing that the Election Commission has ruled improperly, the candidate can appeal to the USG Court. If the Executive Ticket has been disqualified they may appeal to the Dean of Students after the USG Court has made a ruling.
- 12.08 If an appeal is brought to the USG Court, the following format must be used:

 - c) Response to decision, Candidate (3 minutes)
 - d) Rebuttal and evidence, Chair (5 minutes)
 - e) Rebuttal and evidence, Candidate (7 minutes)
 - f) Closing Remarks, Chair (2 minutes)

- g) Closing Remarks, Candidate (3-4 minutes)
 - h) Adjournment, Chief Justice
 - i) Closed Hearing
- 12.09 If the Chair cannot be present, he/she may select another Election Commissioner to stand in place. If the candidate or his/her designee cannot be present they forfeit their rights at the hearing.
- 12.10 The Court will have an hour after the hearing to make a decision. If more time is needed, the Court can request extra time from the advisor of USG.
- 12.11 After the allotted time, the Court will share its decision, with explanations to the candidate and Election Commission Chair. The Court should have a Majority and Dissenting Opinion, if applicable.
- 12.12 The USG Court may reduce sanctions or overturn the sanction completely.
- 12.13 An E-mail must be sent to the USG E-Mail account indicating the desire to appeal within 24 hours of the Election Commission decision.
